

Little Addington Parish Councillor Vacancy

Little Addington Parish Council has a vacancy for a co-opted Parish Councillor

Are you interested in local current affairs?

Do you wish to serve and improve your Community?

Could you provide a voice for residents?

If you feel you would like to get involved in making decisions about your local community and make a significant contribution to the area in which you live, then this is the position for you.

A person co-opted to fill a casual vacancy on the Parish Council must fulfil the same criteria as a person being formally nominated for a candidate at an election. The person must either be on the current Register of Electors for Little Addington and/or during the previous 12 months prior to appointment by co-option, either have occupied as owner or tenant any land or premises in the parish, or had their principal or only place of work in the parish, or have resided either in the parish or within 3 miles of the parish boundary.

The person should also not be disqualified for election under Section 80 of the Local Government Act 1972. Broadly, this relates to holding a paid office under the Town Council, bankruptcy, having been sentenced to a term of imprisonment of not less than 3 months without the option of a fine during the 5 years preceding the co-option, or being disqualified under any enactment relating to corrupt or illegal practices.

Any interested persons are asked to contact the Clerk to Little Addington Parish Council or have a talk with the existing Councillors in the first instance:
